

Autumn term homework
The Celts and Romans

Weekly Maths		Times tables and topic focused sheet
Weekly English		Reading and spelling
Learning Behaviour		Area
		Communication	Science	Awe and Wonder	Art, Culture and Design	Lifskills
Captain Reflective	Philosophical Evaluating own work and strengths Designing and organising activities.	Design a team building activity/game. How would you make sure everyone is included?	Think about all the animals you know. How would you sort them into groups? What might your criteria be?	Can't we all get along? What advice would you offer the Celts and the Romans to help them live together in harmony?	Draw and design a Roman Chariot.	How is your life different to that of a Roman child? What would the similarities be? What would the differences be?
Captain Rational	Analysing arguments Explanations Thinking through consequences Being skeptical	Should the Romans have invaded England? What do you think their reasons were?	Research a spider of your choice. Can you create a detailed sketch, labelling the different parts?	Why do we have rules in school? How do they help your daily life and your learning?	Create a map to show all the countries invaded by the Romans.	Which building would have been more practical to live in a Celtic roundhouse or a Roman villa? Explain why.
Captain Inquisitive	Asking questions Researching Being challenged Choosing learning	Conduct some research into Julius Caesar Create a simple information text.	Conduct research about one animal that is now extinct in the U.K. What can you tell us about this animal?	How do you think the five pillars of Islam link to daily life in modern day life in the U.K?	Fancy a day out? Why not visit this symbolic Roman site. Tell us about your visit. www.english-heritage.org.uk/visit/places/richborough-roman-fort-and-amphitheatre/	What impact have the Romans left on modern day Britain? Create a poster or leaflet.
Captain imaginative	Artistic Inventive Mental imagery Metaphor	Create your own Celtic myth or legend.	Can you write 'a day in the life of a dog'? How might they spend their day? What might they write about?	Islamic art is usually made up of repeating patterns. Can you use this idea to create a patchwork quilt or rug?	Create a piece of battle music that would inspire either the Celts or Romans to battle. . .whose side are you supporting?!	Celtic jewellery was often functional as well as fashionable. Can you create a belt buckle or brooch that is attractive and effective?
Captain relating	Collaborating Cooperating Taking feedback Empathising Different perspective	Write a letter from a soldier in Boudicca's tribe explaining to a family member or friend why they need to go to battle.	Go to your nearest garden, woodland or forest. How many different invertebrates can you find? How could you present your findings?	What do you think it would have been like as a bystander during the Roman invasion? Write a short diary entry as an innocent civilian.	Can you create a piece of art inspired by one of the countries invaded by the Romans?	Research what the Celts might have eaten. How could you alter this and make a delicious dinner? Write the recipe, get photographs of your dish!

